ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. When this appeal was called out for final hearing, learned counsel for the appellant stated that it is probable that the suit might have been disposed off by today in which case, the present appeal may not survive. Obviously if the suit has been disposed off by today, the present orders will not affect the appellant-plaintiff in any manner, let alone affect him adversely.

2. If however, the suit has not been disposed off by today, it is directed that the trial court shall hear and disposed off the said suit as expeditiously as possible and in any case not later than 31st August, 1999. Learned counsel for the parties have assured this Court that the respective parties shall cooperate with the trial court in the early disposal of the suit as aforesaid. It is understood that the present status quo shall continue until the suit is decided.

3. In view of these directions, learned counsel for the appellant does not press this appeal for any further reliefs. Accordingly, the appeal as also the Civil Application stand disposed off with no order as to costs.

4. The Registry is directed to send yadi to the trial court forthwith i.e. not later than 5th December, 1998. Direct service is also permitted.
